Comments by Henrik Henriksson, President and CEO

“Scania’s net sales rose to a record high SEK 119.7 billion, an increase of 15 percent compared to the previous year. Truck deliveries reached an all-time-high and demand for our new truck range was good. Higher vehicle and service volume impacted earnings positively, offsetting higher production costs for running double product ranges, constraints in the supply chain and an unfavourable market mix. Operating income in 2017 amounted to SEK 12.4 billion, which gave an operating margin of 10.4 percent. In 2017, vehicle orders surpassed the level of 100,000 for the first time due to the new truck generation and our global reach. Order bookings for trucks rose by 30 percent compared to the previous year. The strong demand for trucks continued in large parts of Europe. In Eurasia, Russia’s strong recovery is continuing. The trend in Latin America is positive with continued good demand in Argentina and a slight improvement in Brazil. In Asia, demand mainly increased in Iran and China. Order bookings in Buses and Coaches increased by 11 percent, mainly related to Russia and Iran. In the business area Engines, order bookings were strong in all segments. Growth in service volume continued and revenue amounted to a record high SEK 23.7 billion, an increase of 10 percent (8 percent in local currencies). With more than 300,000 connected vehicles in the fleet, Scania is able to continually improve its customer offering with increasingly efficient services for improved profitability. Financial Services reported its highest ever operating income of SEK 1.3 billion and credit losses remain at low levels. The introduction of the new truck generation is continuing. With the launch of trucks for long-haulage, construction and most recently trucks for urban traffic, Scania has unveiled all the products in the new truck family. The new fuel-efficient vehicles offer enhanced drivability, improved safety, ergonomics, comfort and even better overall economy. In 2017, more than 13,000 trucks were delivered from Scania’s new truck range. With an average reduction in fuel consumption of over five percent per vehicle, this will provide total estimated savings of more than 30,000 tonnes in global carbon emissions. During the fourth quarter, Scania also introduced a six-cylinder 13-litre gas engine specifically designed for long-haulage and unveiled its new Scania Citywide Low Floor bus, which is fully electrically-powered.”

Business overview

Excluding items affecting comparability (Q2 2016)

Sales performance

Total vehicle deliveries increased by 12 percent during 2017 to a record high 90,777 (81,346) units, compared to 2016. Net sales rose by 15 percent to SEK 119,713 m. (103,927), also an all-time-high for Scania. Currency effects had a positive impact of 2 percent on sales.

Order bookings for trucks and buses and coaches rose by 28 percent to 109,415 (85,527) vehicles, compared to 2016.

Heavy demand on a broad front

During the fourth quarter, Scania's total order bookings for vehicles reached a new all-time-high, thanks to continued strong demand for trucks in most regions. Demand also increased for buses and coaches.

In Europe, stable freight growth in combination with a replacement need, low fuel prices and attractive financing levels support the positive trend in demand for trucks. Demand for used vehicles in Europe is still good. Demand in Latin America increased compared to the fourth quarter of 2016. Scania continues to note positive signals from the Brazilian market, mainly related to growth in the agricultural and mining sectors.

Scania's market share for trucks in Europe in 2017 was 16.2 percent compared to 16.5 percent in 2016. The continued high level confirms that the current truck range, with its good performance and high quality, is highly appreciated by customers. It is also a proof point of the very good reception of the new truck generation. The new truck generation now accounts for an increasing share of truck deliveries. Increased sales activities in new segments and Scania's broad range for alternative fuels also contributed to the high market share in Europe.

Scania's market share in buses and coaches in Europe amounted to 6.8 percent in 2017 compared to 7.1 percent during the previous year.

A complete new truck generation

Scania's introduction of the new truck generation continues and all the products in the new truck family are now unveiled. After the introduction of trucks for long-haulage during 2016 and Scania XT for the construction industry, the new truck generation was completed during the fourth quarter with innovative trucks for urban traffic. Through the launch of lighter trucks featuring the new 7-litre engine, Scania is giving transporters with operations in cities the opportunity to achieve significantly enhanced transport efficiency and fuel savings of up to 10 percent. The L series is Scania's newly developed cab series for urban traffic for distribution, refuse collection and maintenance. Scania also launched a pioneering six-cylinder 13-litre gas engine specifically designed for long-haulage and construction haulage.

SEK 1.5 billion investment in energy-efficient foundry

Scania plans to invest about SEK 1.5 billion in a new foundry in Södertälje, Sweden, in order to triple capacity and achieve a 50 percent reduction in energy consumption compared to the technology and methods used in the current foundry. Through more efficient materials handling and recycling, a sharp reduction will also be achieved in the transport need per manufactured unit. The foundry will be operated using electricity produced from renewable energy sources.

The truck market

Order bookings

Scania's order bookings increased during the fourth quarter of 2017 and totalled 29,402 (21,727) trucks. Order bookings in Latin America rose sharply during the fourth quarter of 2017. Compared to the fourth quarter of 2016, order bookings rose by 84 percent to 3,994 (2,168) trucks, mainly related to increased demand from low levels in Brazil, which was partly offset by a decrease in Chile. Demand also rose compared to the previous quarter.

In Eurasia, total order bookings rose sharply during the fourth quarter and amounted to 2,415 (1,582) trucks, an upturn that was primarily related to Russia. Order bookings also increased compared to the previous quarter. The political turbulence in the region persists, and for this reason the market situation remains uncertain in Eurasia.

Deliveries

Scania's total truck deliveries increased by 21 percent to 24,309 (20,033) units during the fourth quarter compared to the year-earlier period, despite continued constraints in the supply chain. In Eurasia, deliveries rose sharply to 2,813 (1,335) trucks. Deliveries also rose sharply in Latin America to 3,025 (2,077) units compared to the fourth quarter of 2016. Material risks and uncertainties

The section entitled "Risks and risk management" in Scania's Annual and Sustainability Report for 2016 describes Scania's strategic, operational, legal and financial risks. Note 2 of the same report provides a detailed account of key judgements and estimates. Note 27 of the same report describes the financial risks, such as currency risk and interest rate risk. There have been no significant changes in the risks as described in that report. The risks that have the greatest impact on financial performance and on reporting for the Group and the Parent Company are summarised as follows:

a) Sales with obligations

About 15 percent of the vehicles Scania sells are delivered with residual value obligations or repurchase obligations. These are recognised as operating lease contracts, with the consequence that recognition of revenue and earnings is allocated over the life of the obligation (contract). If there are major changes in the market value of used vehicles, this increases the risk of future losses when selling returned vehicles. When a residual value obligation is deemed likely to cause a future loss, a provision is made in cases where the expected loss exceeds the as-yet-unrecognised profit on the vehicle.

b) Credit risks

In its Financial Service operations, Scania has an exposure in the form of contractual future payments. This exposure is reduced by the collateral Scania has in the form of the right to repossess the underlying vehicle. In case the market value of the collateral does not cover the exposure to the customer, Scania runs a credit risk. Reserves for probable losses in Financial Service operations are set aside in the estimated amounts required.

c) Legal risks

In 2011, Scania became subject of an investigation by the European Commission (EC) in 2011 into allegedly inappropriate cooperation with other European truck manufacturers. A Statement of Objections was served on Scania by the EC in November 2014. In light of such statement and other developments in the investigation and in accordance with relevant accounting principles, Scania made a provision with an amount of SEK 3,800 m. in June closing 2016. Scania always cooperated fully with the EC, while all through the investigation contesting the EC's view that Scania would have participated in a pan-European cartel during 1997-2011 on pricing and delayed introductions of emissions related technology. Scania were served a final decision by the EC in October 2017, holding Scania liable for such scope of a cartel in the amount of around SEK 8.4 bn. (EUR 881 m.) in fines. Scania have appealed against this decision in its entirety, and has in January 2018 provided a guarantee as security for the fines pending the outcome of such appeal. Scania is also the subject of related civil claims by direct or indirect customers of Scania, and may face additional similar claims.

Accounting principles

Scania applies International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRSs) as adopted by the EU. This Interim Report for the Scania Group has been prepared in accordance with IAS 34, "Interim Financial Reporting" and the Annual Accounts Act. New and revised standards and interpretations that have been applied from 1 January 2017 have not had any significant impact on Scania's financial statements. As from January 2017 some reclassifications have been made regarding presentation in the income statement. In Vehicles and Services, the presentation of Share of income in associated companies and joint ventures has been reclassified from presentation in operating income to presentation in financial items. In Financial services, the result from sale of vehicles returned from customer and insurance commission previously presented as other income and expenses have been reclassified and presented in interest and lease income and separately as insurance commission, respectively. The reclassifications have been made retrospectively, which means that comparative figures have been restated. The reclassifications only have minor effects on key financial ratios. Other than this, accounting principles and calculation methods are unchanged from those applied in the Annual Report and Sustainability Report for 2016.

The Interim Report for the Parent Company, Scania AB, has been prepared in accordance with the Annual Accounts Act and recommendation RFR 2, "Accounting for Legal Entities" of the Swedish Financial Reporting Board.

Dividend and Annual General Meeting

Scania's Annual General Meeting for the financial year 2016 was held in Södertälje, Sweden on 4 May 2017. The Board of Directors decided on a dividend proposal of SEK 4,353 m. which represents 50 percent of the net income SEK 8,705 m. for 2017.

Fair value of financial instruments

Amounts in SEK m. unless otherwise stated

In Scania's balance sheet, items carried at fair value are mainly derivatives and current investments. Fair value is established according to various levels, defined in IFRS 13, that reflect the extent to which market values have been utilised. Current investments and cash and cash equivalents are carried according to Level 1, i.e. quoted prices in active markets for identical assets, and amounted to SEK 738 m. (1,275). Other assets that are carried at fair value refer to derivatives. These assets are carried according to Level 2, which is based on data other than the quoted prices that are part of Level 1 and refer to directly or indirectly observable market data, such as discount rate and credit risk. These items are carried under Other non-current receivables SEK 239 m. (374), Other current receivables SEK 377 m. (329), Other non-current liabilities SEK 474 m. (778) and Other current liabilities SEK m. 793 (420).

For financial assets that are carried at amortised cost, book value amounts to SEK 76,805 (67,493) and fair value to SEK 76,841 (67,281). For financial liabilities that are carried at amortised cost, book value amounts to SEK 72,708 (70,751) and fair value to SEK 72,700 (70,728). Fair value of financial instruments such as trade receivables, trade payables and other non-interest-bearing financial assets and liabilities that are recognised at amortised cost minus any impairment losses, is regarded as coinciding with the carrying amount.

New Accounting principles from January 2018

Scania has applied IFRS 9 "Financial Instruments" and IFRS 15 "Revenue from Contract with Customers" from 1 January 2018. Scania has chosen to apply IFRS 9 retrospectively without adjusting comparative figures. The impact of the transition 1 January 2018 refers to the impairment model and amounts to SEK 150 m. net after tax recognized in equity. Regarding IFRS 15, Scania's previously applied accounting principles regarding revenue is in line with the requirements in IFRS 15 and therefore Scania has no effect in equity on transition to IFRS 15.

Key financial ratios and figures

In the Interim report, Scania presents certain performance measures that are used to explain relevant trends and performance of the group, of which not all are defined under IFRS. As these performance measures are not uniformly defined by all companies, these are not always comparable with the measures used by other companies. These performance measures should therefore not be viewed as substitutes for IFRS-defined measures. The following are the performance measures used by Scania that are not defined under IFRS, unless otherwise stated.
